Tax Increase Hinted to Pay Defense Costs

Congress Talks New Levies; Auto Industry May Have to Abandon New Models, Secretary Morgenthau Indicates

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The administration and congressional leaders agreed today to raise $3,000,000,000 of new taxes in the next five years to pay the costs of national defense.

It calls for the immediate financing of defense costs by the ale of $3,000,000,000 of special "national defense obligations." It also calls for the levying of additional taxes, amounting to between $600,000,000 and $700,000,000 annually for the next five years, the proceeds to be used to retire the "national defense obligations" and Graduation is an outstanding vent for students, their parents event for students, their parents and their friends, It represents the culmination of months and years of hard work and that final diploma is significant of the triumph.

As such, graduation should be marked with something a little out of the ordinary, and Art, the Jeweler, has made it possible for every parent, or friend, to do this.

In no year past haes the variety of gradation gifts been so marked as it has at Art's this year. Jewelry is as always, one of the finest expressions, one of the best and most wanted gifts.

It would be difficult to find any-thing either more beautiful or more useful than a watch for the graduate, in the event he or she does not have one, Art carries a number of lines of fine watches, in moth men's and women's styles and, of course, every one is of the latest design.

There are other jewelry items in countless number. There are small electric clocks, bedroom and auto radios, cameras, shaving equipment, pen and pencil sets—everything, in fact that would please the young Harris of Salem visited Sunday man or young woman.

Robbery Reported By Kensington Firm

LISBON, May 28-Authorities today are seeking clues to the robbery of the Kensington Supply company at Kensington, by thieves who escaped with three cans of motor oil and seven tires.

The matter was reported to the sheriff's office Monday. An inves-tigation was conducted by Sheriff K. Duty and Deputy O. Stacey, who warned dealers and individuals against purchasing any of the above loot. The robbery evidently occurred Sunday night, with the thieves gaining entrance to the building by breaking open a door at the rear of the storehouse

"If your mother doesn't need it," replied her father faintly.
"Not until this afternoon, Gabristated her mother crisply. "But—be sure you pick your father up promptly at noon!"

'Okay. Gee-I wish I'd get a car of my own for my birthday!" "Nineteen this summer," mused her father. "Doesn't seem possible does it, Helen?" "In August," Gabrielle said.

"Well—I'll go get my hat."
Upstairs she found her white panama and was arranging her hair under it when Odd, her Boston terrier, got out of his wicker bed, yawning and stretching himself luxuriously. He approached her feet, sniffed her white buck oxfords investigatingly, then licked them absently.

"Don't Odd," she said. "Shoe polish won't do you any good, old boy. Want to come with me? Want to go, boy?'

Odd, hearing his best liked word, cocked his head on one side, wiggled his tail which was, practically speaking, no tail at all, and hurried over to the closet door behind which his harness and leash were kept. He uttered a low, guttural

Gabrielle laughed and going over to the clothespress got them for him. Holding out the harness and buckling it was all that was necessary; Odd himself got into it.

'We'll breakfast at the drugstore if the family won't let us eat in peace here," she said, as though comforting him. "Peter will be glad to watch us eat, and we'll be glad to see Peter!"

Odd, his harness in place, dashed ahead of her down the broad stair-way. Gabrielle followed more slowly, carrying her purse and his leash There were dreams in her eyes again. Dreams of Peter and his blue Irish eyes. Lovely remembered dreams of the previous night. (To be continued)

The Cleveland Indians slipped half a notch in their efforts to overtake the Boston Red Sox in the American league by losing a night game to the Detroit Tigers 6-1. The Red Sox were rained out at Philadelphia.

The New York Yankees pulled a pitching chestnut out of the fire in old time fashion. They got only four hits, the same as the Washington Senators, but triumphed 5-0. Spud Chandler allowed nothing but singles, well separated, while the Yankee blows included Charley Keller's fifth home run with two on and Joe Dimaggio's third.

This enabled the Chicago White

Sox to climb back into the first division by outslugging the St. Louis Browns 15 hits to nine for a 7-5 victory. Ted Lyons went the route for the Sox.

Espinosa and Penna Set Pace For District Golfers

CLEVELAND, May 28 - The Cleveland district today sent 15 crack golfers into the June 6-8 National Open tournament.

The 15 emerged as qualifiers from a field of 138 after 36 holes over the Manakiki and Mayfield courses. The open will be played here at Canterbury.

Two veterans of the links-Al Espinosa of Akron and Tiny Penna of Dayton—lead the parade with 142's, one under par.

Missing from the list were two former champions, Billy Burke and Al Leach, both of Cleveland. Burke was National Open titlist in 1931 and Leach took the National Public Links crown in 1938. Burke posted a 154, two more than the highest qualifying score, and Leach was far back with 170.

Walter Hagen qualified with a 149. Two amateurs, John Barko and Tom Whiteway, both of Cleveland, made the grade.

half a notch in their efforts American league by losing a night game to the Detroit Tigers 6-1. The Red Sox were rained out at Philadelphia.

The New York Yankees pulled a pitching chestnut out of the fire in old time fashion. They got only four hits, the same as the Washington Senators, but triumphed 5-0. Spud Chandler allowed nothing but singles, well separated, while the Yankee blows included Charley Keller's fifth home run with two on and Joe Dimaggio's third.

This enabled the Chicago White

Sox to climb back into the first division by outslugging the St. Louis Browns 15 hits to nine for a 7-5 victory. Ted Lyons went the route for the Sox.

Espinosa and Penna Set Pace For District Golfers

CLEVELAND, May 28 - The Cleveland district today sent 15 crack golfers into the June 6-8 National Open tournament.

The 15 emerged as qualifiers from a field of 138 after 36 holes over the Manakiki and Mayfield courses. The open will be played here at Canterbury.
Two veterans of the links—Al Espinosa of Akron and Tiny Penna of Dayton—lead the parade with 142's, one under par.

Missing from the list were two former champions, Billy Burke and Al Leach, both of Cleveland, Burke was National Open titlist in 1931 and Leach took the National Public Links crown in 1938.
